Overview

Do you need a distributor in Albania?

Consumer-oriented trade shows are also an important part of the retail scene in Albania. No legal requirement exists to use an agent or distributor in Albania. To conduct business effectively, however, it is important for U.S. firms to select local sales partners.

Does Albania have a distribution center?

Albania can also serve as hub for distribution into neighboring markets of Kosovo and North Macedonia. The primary distribution centers are in the capital Tirana and its neighboring city Durres, which both house close to 40% of the nation's population.

What distribution channels are available in Albania?

All the typical distribution channels are available in Albania, although they often lack the sophistication of distribution networks found in Western markets. National Business Center offers valuable information on companies registered in Albania and their financial situation.

How to find a business partner in Albania?

National Business Center offers valuable information on companies registered in Albania and their financial situation. The following consulting offices, law firms, and other professional organizations may aid in evaluating the credibility of a potential business partner.
