Solar panels halted

Overview

What happened to the $7 billion solar for all program?

Recipients of the $7 billion Solar For All program were locked out of an online portal that's used to distribute federal funding. The Solar For All program is designed to spur clean energy projects in low-income areas. Mario Tama/AFP via Getty Images.

Are battery and solar projects getting killed in record numbers?

Battery, solar, and wind projects are getting killed in record numbers. Here's a map of all the cancellations so far this year. This story is part of MIT Technology Review's "America Undone" series, examining how the foundations of US success in science and innovation are currently under threat. You can read the rest here.

Why is US solar growth slowing down?

The US is also expected to slow down, because of President Donald Trump's less favourable policies towards renewables. In its October report, the IEA downgraded the US solar growth forecast for 2025-2030 compared with 2024 by almost 40 per cent.

Is solar for all safe?

The Trump administration has been trying for months to terminate the other $20 billion of grants in the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund, but Solar for All had been safe, until Trump's megabill became law. Representatives of the three recipients told Jean that some awardees don't have the money to continue their activities without the federal money.

Solar panels halted

Solar remains robust despite policy changes in US and China

"The solar plants will be exposed to power prices and, obviously, that brings in a lot of risk for these plants," says Lara Hayim, solar analyst at BloombergNEF.
